

Song for Wonder

Words: Connor Sites-Bowen
Music: "Daniel Prayed" (Ralph Stanley)

REFRAIN

Wonder I!	Wonder I in the morning
Noon	and Night

LYRICS (refrain between each)

There was a house	upon a bridge
A place to breathe,	a place to live
With cupboards full	of dreams and plans
Of treats and sweets	in rainbow cans
With hallways lined	with stones and gems
From granite cows	and diamond hens
A pantry full	of creatures all
the biggest big	the smallest small
But houses fall	and bridges crack
the spirits were not	welcome back
Her treasure chest	an empty jar
Wonder, she went	wide and far
We want for life	to be a thrill
for new Delights	for magic still
We sing her name	in-to the sky
Her bridge is back!	I think I spy...

Song for Wisdom

Words: Connor Sites-Bowen
Music: "Daniel Prayed" (Ralph Stanley)

REFRAIN

Wis - dom	Teaches me to list-en
To	my life

LYRICS (refrain between each)

There was a house	upon a bridge
A place to breathe,	a place to live
The shelves were lined	with book and page
The scholar's wit	the poet's rage
An ancient clock	to keep the time
For seasons live	first in the mind
A glass of scotch	beside the hearth
The study done	a drink of earth
Yes, houses fall	and bridges crack
And spirits choose not	to come back
His hermitage	on hillside hurled
The wise old man	walked through the world
We want to live	with grace and care
From thorough plans	and honest wear
We sing his name	in-to the sky
His bridge is back!	I think I spy...

Song for Wonder

Words: Connor Sites-Bowen
Music: "Daniel Prayed" (Ralph Stanley)

REFRAIN

Wonder I!	Wonder I in the morning
Noon	and Night

LYRICS (refrain between each)

There was a house	upon a bridge
A place to breathe,	a place to live
With cupboards full	of dreams and plans
Of treats and sweets	in rainbow cans
With hallways lined	with stones and gems
From granite cows	and diamond hens
A pantry full	of creatures all
the biggest big	the smallest small
But houses fall	and bridges crack
the spirits were not	welcome back
Her treasure chest	an empty jar
Wonder, she went	wide and far
We want for life	to be a thrill
for new Delights	for magic still
We sing her name	in-to the sky
Her bridge is back!	I think I spy...

Song for Wisdom

Words: Connor Sites-Bowen
Music: "Daniel Prayed" (Ralph Stanley)

REFRAIN

Wis - dom	Teaches me to list-en
To	my life

LYRICS (refrain between each)

There was a house	upon a bridge
A place to breathe,	a place to live
The shelves were lined	with book and page
The scholar's wit	the poet's rage
An ancient clock	to keep the time
For seasons live	first in the mind
A glass of scotch	beside the hearth
The study done	a drink of earth
Yes, houses fall	and bridges crack
And spirits choose not	to come back
His hermitage	on hillside hurled
The wise old man	walked through the world
We want to live	with grace and care
From thorough plans	and honest wear
We sing his name	in-to the sky
His bridge is back!	I think I spy...